

ANNEX 1
Pt.	Topic
1	Article 800 – General Codex For Athletes and Registered Trainers Competing in FEI Endurance Events <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. This Codex recognises two distinct roles associated with the preparation and participation of horses in FEI Endurance competitions: Athlete and Trainer 2. The athlete is the rider of the horse in the competition. 3. The trainer is responsible for the preparation of the horse for competition as well as advising the athlete on riding tactics during the event. 4. Prior to the event, the trainer is responsible for the conditioning of the horse for the competition which involves exercise programme, nutrition of the horse and seeking appropriate veterinary care and the administration of therapeutic substances under veterinary advice. 5. The athlete, in many circumstances, may also be both the trainer and rider of the horse. 6. To be successful, both the athlete and the trainer must have knowledge of pace and efficient and safe use of the horse across country and must be continually aware of both human and equine safety. 7. The athlete and trainer must not enter a horse for competition or compete a horse that is suffering from an illness, injury or is receiving medication that would adversely affect or enhance the horses’ ability to compete. 8. The FEI requires all those involved in international equestrian sport to adhere to the FEI Code of Conduct for the Welfare of Horses and to acknowledge and accept that at all times the welfare of the horse must be paramount. Welfare of the horse must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences. 9. The athlete and the trainer must have knowledge of the Endurance Rules, the Veterinary and FEI Equine Anti-Doping and Controlled Medication Regulations in addition to an awareness of the General Regulations. They must insure that they are aware of any annual

	changes, regularly reviewing the Endurance Rules, Veterinary Regulations and support a Clean Sport. 10. The Athlete and Trainer must abide by these rules and regulations in the preparation for and during competition. 11. The FEI has the right to undertake disciplinary actions against an athlete or trainer who does not follow this Codex and FEI rules, to the detriment of the welfare of the horse and the integrity of the sport. 12. When Endurance horses are registered with the FEI the name of the Trainer for that horse must also be registered and a registration fee paid. Where the FEI Registered Trainer is also a registered Athlete then no additional registration fee is charged. 800.1.1 Endurance Riding is a competition to test the competitor's ability to safely manage the stamina and fitness of the horse over an endurance course in a competition against the track, the distance, the climate, the terrain and the clock. 800.1.2 The most important responsibility of the Technical Delegate, the Ground Jury, the Stewards, the Veterinary Commission, the Chef d'Equipe, the Team Veterinarian, the Trainer, Grooms and ultimately the absolute responsibility of the Athlete is to ensure the health and welfare of the horse by diligent application of their skill together with a caring, knowledgeable attitude by the Athlete. 800.1.3 To be successful, the competitor Athlete must have knowledge of pace and efficient and safe use of the horse across country. 800.1.4 In an Endurance Ride any member of the Genus Equus counts as a "horse". 800.2.3 Distances of 80km to 119km must have at least two Vet Gates plus the final inspection (three phases). Distances of 120 km to 139km must have at least three Vet Gates plus the final inspection (four phases). Distances of 140 km to 160 km must should have at least five Vet Gates plus the final inspection. (6 phases) (There may be is a possibility to reduce this to 5 phases subject to the recommendation of the Technical Delegate (TD) and the approval of the President of the Veterinary Commission). 800.4 An Endurance Ride is a competition against the clock. The combination that finishes the course in the shortest time will be classified as the winner of the competition after successfully completing all final Veterinary Inspections and medication control as well as other protocols in place for the safety of the horse and Athlete under these Rules, the FEI General Regulations or the FEI Veterinary Regulations. Competitions shall be organised to allow Athletes to establish their own pace to compete against the clock, subject to: 800.4.1 Adverse Conditions: Should adverse conditions on course or other considerations such as high humidity, high temperatures arise which might compromise the opportunity to safely complete a course, the Organising Committee (OC) in consultation with the Technical Delegate (TD) may establish a maximum time for a section of the

	course or a phase of competition and/or the closing times for one or more Vet Gates, in order to ensure Athletes are not falling too far behind the actual pace of the ride and to ensure horse safety. 801.1 The Technical Delegate (TD) and FEI Course designer (when appointed) shall consult with the Organising Committee (OC) to assist in creating a technically challenging course across country within the limits provided by the terrain and weather conditions, to include changes in the footing, that will test the stamina and riding skills of the combination, but not compromise the welfare of the horse. 801.2 The course should include naturally occurring or manmade features such as (but not exclusive to) tracks, ditches, steep climbs, descents and water crossings that implements technically challenging factors including but not limited to: footing, terrain, altitude, direction and speed. 801.4.1 The course should must not contain more than 10% of hard surface public access roads intended for vehicular use. 801.4.2 Under the absolute control of the Course Designer or Technical Delegate loops of the course must not be specially designed and constructed for high speeds likely to subject the horses to increased risk of injury during competition. 801.8 The finish must be long and wide enough to enable several horses to finish at speed without interfering with each other, and must provide sufficient run-out to allow Athletes to safely come to a stop after crossing the finishing line in any potential sprint or gallop. It must be situated as close to the Vet Gate as possible. 801.8.1 The 'field of play' is defined as; the defined course (loops or phases), the defined crewing areas on course or within the vet gate, the vet examination area and the hold area at or within the vet gate. For Championships, there will be restricted access to the field of play as defined in the schedule. 801.8.2 The maximum number of grooms allowed within the vet gate will be 5 per horse to take into account availability of space or too ensure that the horse is allowed sufficient space to rest. Access to the vet gate and the vet gate examination area may be further restricted by the Organiser under advice from the FEI Technical Delegate. Such restrictions must be clearly shown in the FEI approved schedule. Such groom access is lost upon removal of the applicable horse from the competition. 801.8.3 All horses must remain at all times clearly under observation to FEI Veterinary Officials, Ground Jury and Stewards. No screens, no equipment or barrier of any kind may be used to prevent such

Article 823 - VETERINARY TREATMENT DURING COMPETITION

Veterinary treatment may not be administered to a horse during the competition without the written approval of the Veterinary Commission. Authorised treatment does not affect classification of the horse. (see FEI Veterinary Regulations)

- FEI Veterinary Regulations (in accordance with all subsequent published revisions, the provisions of which will take precedence).

CHAPTER V EQUINE TREATMENT & SUPPORTIVE THERAPIES DURING FEI EVENTS

Article 1046

Treatment with Controlled Medication Substances

1. Controlled Medication Substances, as listed on the FEI Equine Prohibited Substances List (EPSL), which are administered to Horses during or close to an Event may result in an Adverse Analytical Finding in accordance with the EADCMRs.

2. During Events, the administration of treatments and supportive therapies must be authorised by the VC/ VD before administration, using the appropriate Veterinary Form.

3. The use of Banned Substances is always strictly prohibited.

4. The treatment or supportive therapy, if authorised, may only be administered by an FEI Veterinarian with the exception of those substances administered orally or by nebulisation.

In emergency situations where the Horse's welfare is at risk, emergency therapeutic treatments may be administered. Following such administration, a Veterinary Form 1 must be presented for retrospective authorisation and for determination, where appropriate, of whether the Horse can continue competing at the Event. The Veterinary 1 Form must under all circumstances be completed before leaving the Event venue and before the Period of the Event has expired.

5. The use of a Controlled Medication Substance may only be authorised for treatment during an Event in exceptional circumstances, in accordance with these VRs, the EADCMRs and the GRs.

6. No intra-articular administration of any medication is allowed during FEI Events.

7. Treatments administered before an FEI Event (e.g. during transport) may be retro-actively authorised, using the appropriate Veterinary Form (in accordance with these VRs), by the VC/ VD, when appropriate, on arrival at the Event. Retrospective authorisation will not be automatically granted and will be at the discretion of the VD and the GJ.

8. In accordance with the Code of Conduct for the Horse, the VC/ VD must always verify prior to signing the Veterinary Form whether the medication requested, or previously administered, may affect:

- a) the Horse's fitness to compete;

28-29 April 2014, IMD, Lausanne (SUI)

- b) the fairness of the Competition; and/or
c) the welfare of the Horse and/ or Athlete.

Article 824 - DUTIES OF OFFICIALS

The FEI will appoint the President of Jury, the Foreign Judge, the President of the Vet Commission and Foreign Vet Delegate at all 3* events and all CEIO competitions. For CEI 1*, 2*, in special circumstances, the FEI has the right to consult with OCs, in a timely manner, to ask for a different balance of experience and expertise within the team of Officials proposed in the schedule of the competition.

At all CEI 1*, 2* and 3* Events, the FEI may grant dispensation to General Regulations Art.149.10 subject to a request being received from the National Federation concerned and compliance with the conditions as detailed in the FEI Endurance Notes for Guidance.

CODEX for FEI Endurance Officials

1. The FEI Endurance official is an expert on Endurance, who must have knowledge of the principles of Endurance of the FEI-Rules and, based on his/her star rating is qualified to judge the appropriately rated FEI International Endurance competitions.
He/She is always representing the FEI.
2. An FEI Endurance official must avoid any actual or perceived conflict of interest. An Endurance Official must have a neutral, independent and fair position towards riders, owners, trainers, organizers and other officials and integrate well into a team. Financial and/or personal interest must never influence or be perceived to influence his/her way of judging.

Activities which will lead to or may lead to a "conflict of interest" when officiating at a CEI, include but are not limited to:

- Acting as Team chef of National teams at international level or being responsible/co-responsible for selecting teams and/or individuals or training riders within the NF.
- To be owner/part-owner of horses taking part in the event.
- Being in a situation of financial dependence or gaining financial profit from owners, riders, trainers, organizers or other related organisations.
- Having a close personal relationship with a competitor.
- Nationalistic judging.

An Official is responsible for notifying the FEI of any of the above or other possible conflicts of interest or situations that may be perceived as such.

3. During an Endurance event an official must be punctual and professional in the way of behaviour and duties.

28-29 April 2014, IMD, Lausanne (SUI)
